Associate Attorney Chelsie M. Lamie named as Honoree of Tampa Bay Business Journal's 2009 "Up and Comers" Award

Clearwater, FL, September 28, 2009: Perenich, Caulfield, Avril, Noyes & Perenich is pleased to announce that associate attorney Chelsie M. Lamie was recently selected by a panel of judges to be part of the Tampa Bay Business Journal's 2009 Up & Comers Awards.

Over two hundred local professions were nominated for this honor. Attorney Lamie, along with the other 31 honorees within her age division (under 30) will attend an awards dinner on November 5, 2009 at the Tampa Marriott Harborside Hotel & Marina in Tampa.

Perenich, Caulfield, Avril, Noyes & Perenich, PA was founded in 1955 and limits its practice to representing accident victims. Ms. Lamie focuses her practice on automobile accidents, medical malpractice claims, workers' compensation accidents and slip and falls.

Ms. Lamie received her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law in 2007 and her B.A. in Psychology from the University of Tampa in 2002. Prior to attending law school, Ms. Lamie worked as an automobile and general liability claims adjuster for a large insurance company. Prior to joining Perenich Caulfield Avril Noyes & Perenich, Chelsie worked as an insurance defense lawyer in Tampa.

Ms. Lamie is a member of the Florida Justice Association; the Clearwater Bar Association; the Hillsborough County Bar Association; the Hillsborough Association for Women Lawyers; Pinellas County Trial Lawyers; and the Young Lawyers Division of the Florida Bar. She also serves as co-chair of the Clearwater Bar Association's Civil Practice Division and as co-chair of the Bar's Summer Legal Intern Program.
