NEWS RELEASE

Perenich, Caulfield, Avril Donates to SPC Foundation, Friends of 440, Clearwater and St. Petersburg Bar Associations, and Community Block Party

Clearwater, FL, September 29, 2009: The personal injury law firm Perenich, Caulfield, Avril recently made $2,750 in donations to Tampa Bay area organizations and causes. Firm partners Bryan Caulfield and Matthew Noyes were sponsors of the Community Block Party on September 26, 2009 hosted by Rimmel Wellness Center in St. Petersburg, Florida. The block party was open to the public and featured free food, music, games, and prizes.

Perenich, Caulfield, Avril recently contributed $1,000 to the St. Petersburg College (SPC) Foundation for a scholarship to support SPC's Paralegal Studies students. Three attorneys at the firm, Mark Perenich, Jay Avril, and Matthew Noyes, have been instructors at SPC. In addition, attorneys Matthew Noyes and Lorraine Robinson are graduates of St. Petersburg College. SPC offers an Associate in Science and the only Bachelor's degree in Paralegal Studies in Florida approved by the American Bar Association. For information on how to apply for this scholarship please visit <http://www.spcollege.edu/central/foundation/>

Perenich, Caulfield, Avril is a sponsor of two Clearwater/St. Petersburg Bar Association events in October 2009. The firm is a sponsor of the Swearing In Ceremony and Reception for candidates for admission to the Florida Bar. The ceremony will be held on October 2, 2009 at 3:00pm at the Pinellas County Criminal Justice Center. The firm is also a sponsor of the St. Petersburg Bar Association's Oktoberfest on October 10 from 6-10pm at the USF Bayboro Campus in St. Petersburg, Florida. This event is a fundraiser for the St. Petersburg Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division and features food, drinks, and live music.

Additionally, the firm donated to the Tampa Bay Chapter of the Friends of 440 Scholarship Fund. The organization raises scholarship funds to aid students who lack the economic ability to continue their education beyond high school or to further their college education.
